This Sunday at CRBC

Thou shall not covet. Do you lack contentment, always struggling with wanting more? CRBC Pastor Danny Estave concludes his Ten Commandments series exploring what it means for us not to covet.

Join us for worship this Sunday at 11AM (also on YouTube).

Wednesday Night Bible Study Returns

Beginning Wednesday night, April 17th at 6:30PM, Pastor Danny will lead us through 4-week study of the book of 2 Peter. Please share this opportunity with your friends & family and bring them along.

Annie Armstrong Easter Offering

The Annie Armstrong Easter Offering (AAEO) is the primary way Southern Baptists fund missions in North America. One hundred percent of gifts given to AAEO go to the field to support more than 2,900 missionary families serving across the United States and Canada. Gifts to the AAEO are used to train and resource missionaries in church planting and compassion ministries. Gifts are also used to create evangelism resources.

New churches are being planted, hurts are being healed, and lives are being transformed by the gospel because you give. Please pray for these missionary families and for the people they will reach. You may give to this offering through the end of April. Make your check to CRBC and note AAEO. If giving online, click <https://www.creedmoorroadbaptist.com/givenow.html>, and select Annie Armstrong Easter Offering as your choice of fund.

Getting to Know Annie Armstrong

Annie Armstrong was born in Baltimore, Maryland on July 11, 1850, to James & Mary Elizabeth Walker Armstrong. Unfortunately, her father died when she was very young. Annie's mother was a devout Baptist, and very active in her church at a time when there was little opportunity for women.

Annie's mother became her role model. Like her mother, she developed a strong desire to help African Americans, immigrants, the sick, and the poor. After listening to a speech about the destitute conditions and needs of indigenous people in Oklahoma, Annie, along with other women, organized events to raise money and clothing for those in need. That experience served as the catalyst for Annie to encourage other groups of women to mobilize in similar endeavors, organizing them to pray, give, and meet the needs of those in their local community. She challenged pastors and churches to action, rallying vital support for missionaries. Annie wrote a thousand inspiring letters by hand, asking for contributions to the first Christmas offering that resulted in sending $ 3,313.25 to support the efforts of Lottie Moon in China.

Annie Armstrong knew the importance of making Christians aware of those in need and calling them to make a difference in the lives of others. Over a ten-year span, it was reported that Annie Armstrong had written an astonishing 77,447 letters and manuscripts for the cause of Christ.

More information about the fascinating life & legacy of Anne Armstrong will follow in upcoming newsletters.
