This Sunday at CRBC

Do you ever struggle with your assurance of salvation, struggle to find hope in the middle of a trial, or find it difficult to bounce back after a failure? CRBC Pastor Danny Estave shares from Ephesians chapter 1 that in the midst of our struggles, the theological truths that about God and his great plan for our salvation can provide the assurance, hope, and strength we need in the midst of trouble.

Join us for worship this Sunday at 11AM (also on YouTube).

Annie Armstrong - Devoted to the Spread of the Gospel

As we continue to learn more about the trailblazer Annie Armstrong, we know that she was determined to do whatever she could to further the gospel. In 1888, Annie led in framing the constitution of the Women's Missionary Union (WMU). She served as the Corresponding Secretary (equivalent to executive director today), always refusing a salary for the work she did through the WMU.

So let each one give as he purposes in his heart, not grudgingly or of necessity; for God loves a cheerful giver — 2 Corinthians 9:7

The offering we give to today was originally started in 1895 by the WMU to benefit the work of the Home Mission Board, now referred to as the North American Mission Board. In 1934, this offering was renamed in honor and in memory of Annie Armstrong.

Over the years, more that two billion dollars has been donated to the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering (AAEO) by Southern Baptist churches, supporting thousands of North American missionaries in church planting and compassion ministries. Every dollar given to the AAEO goes to train and provide the resources for the nearly 3,000 missionaries who share the life-transforming gospel of Jesus Christ across the US, Canada, and their territories. Because of sacrificial giving, millions of lives have been, and continue to be, transformed by the power of the gospel. Please continue to pray for these missionaries who go in our place.

Annie Armstrong Easter Offering

The Annie Armstrong Easter Offering (AAEO) is the primary way Southern Baptists fund missions in North America. Gifts to the AAEO are used to train and resource missionaries in church planting and compassion ministries. Gifts are also used to create evangelism resources.

You may give to this offering through the end of April. Make your check to CRBC and note AAEO. If giving online, click <https://www.creedmoorroadbaptist.com/givenow.html>, and select Annie Armstrong Easter Offering as your choice of fund.
