This Sunday at CRBC

This Sunday, Pastor Danny is away, and CRBC is again blessed to hear from our own Rev. Mike Carter, who will share a message from God's word: Three Tombstones in a Washpot, from Ruth 1.

Join us at 11AM this Sunday at CRBC (also on YouTube).

Hoping for Hope

Hope. It seems this short four-letter word is used countless times during an average conversation with people in general. We hope for good health, loving families, safe trips, and smart, well-rounded children. This type of hope is something that we wish for or dream about. But hope means different things to different people.

Believers who daily walk with God have found the one true hope; it's the hope that is rooted in God Himself and shows the presence of his Spirit within us. It's a true gift from God. This hope will strengthen us for the wide variety of challenges we face because we will see those challenges through the lens of God's character. Having true hope is not hoping everything will turn out our way; true hope considers the circumstances of life realistically and then confidently rests in the promises of God.

For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope — Jeremiah 29:11

When we put our absolute faith in God, we become possessors of this hope. And that changes everything! With a hope that anchors our soul, we can confidently engage the world with the gospel message: that Jesus came to be the light, life, and hope for every tongue, tribe, and nation. So let's read God's Holy Word, believe on his promises, and obey Christ, who by his blood, purchased them for us all.
