This Palm Sunday at CRBC

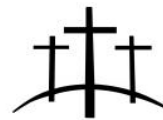

On the road to the cross, Luke records the stories of several people who either accepted or rejected Jesus. These stories are not only part of the historical record, they are symbolic of the ways people in all places and at all times respond to Jesus. This Palm Sunday, Pastor Danny Estave looks the responses of five people to consider when we contemplate our own response to Jesus.

Worship with us this at 11AM Sunday at CRBC (also on YouTube).

Easter Sunday Schedule

Easter Sunday is March 31st, just 10 days away, and CRBC will gather as we celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. The day will begin at 9:45AM with a potluck fellowship breakfast in the Fellowship Hall. Please bring a favorite breakfast dish that would feed your family, with a little extra for our guests. At 11AM, we will continue our celebration with our Easter Sunday Worship Service (no Gospel Project on Easter Sunday).

Please take this opportunity to reach out and invite unchurched family and friends this Easter as we fellowship and worship together, remembering Jesus Christ's death, resurrection, and victory over sin and death.

Jesus' Triumphant Entry into Jerusalem

There was a large, excited crowd to welcome Jesus when He entered Jerusalem. Many had heard about his ministry and the many miracles of healing and good deeds He had done. It was Passover and Jesus chose to enter the city riding on a donkey, showing his peaceful coming, humility, and selflessness as well as his divine nature:

Rejoice greatly, Daughter Zion! Shout, Daughter Jerusalem! See, your king comes to you, righteous and victorious and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey — Zechariah 9:9

Jesus came not only as Israel's King, but also as her Savior, granting eternal salvation through spiritual means rather than by political force. As He entered the city, onlookers laid their garments down in front of Him and waved palm branches: a sign of honor, praise, and respect while they proclaimed, "Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!" Some in the crowd did not know who Jesus was and were told, "This is the prophet Jesus, from Nazareth of Galilee."

Jesus entered the city knowing He would be tried and crucified, but invited his fate in order to be raised from the grave and save us from our sins. Palm Sunday marks the beginning of Holy Week, the remembrance of his steps toward the cross. As Christians, we believe his Holy Word reveals great truth in every part of this story. When we worship together this Palm Sunday, may our thoughts and attention be directed towards Jesus Christ and may we draw closer to Him. We invite you to invite others to join us as we worship our one, true God, and give Him all glory, honor, and praise.

Annie Armstrong Easter Offering

The Annie Armstrong Easter Offering (AAEO) is the primary way Southern Baptists fund missions in North America. One hundred percent of gifts given to AAEO go to the field to support more than 2,900 missionary families serving across the United States and Canada. Gifts to the AAEO are used to train and resource missionaries in church planting and compassion ministries. Gifts are also used to create evangelism resources.

New churches are being planted, hurts are being healed, and lives are being transformed by the gospel because you give. Please pray for these missionary families and for the people they will reach. You may give to this offering through the end of April. Make your check to CRBC and note AAEO. If giving online, click <https://www.creedmoorroadbaptist.com/givenow.html>, and select Annie Armstrong Easter Offering as your choice of fund.

Prayer Points

- Thank God that Jesus was forsaken so that we would not have to be.
- Pray that those who feel forsaken would come to know the acceptance of the One who loves them.
- Pray that many would respond to the invitation to come and hear the gospel this Easter.
- Pray in personal preparation for the Lord's Supper this Sunday morning (1 Corinthians 11:23-29).
- Please pray for the missionary families of the NAMB, and for the people they will reach.
- Pray for Crystal Vines.

If you have prayer requests for next week's newsletter, please share them with CRBC Pastor Danny Estave or the church office. The contact information is on page 1 of this newsletter.
