This Sunday at CRBC

How do you cooperate and get along with others in the church when you passionately disagree with them? CRBC Pastor Danny Estave looks to the book of Romans to help you draw the line between “agree to disagree” and “take a stand.”

Join us this Sunday at 11AM at CRBC (also on YouTube).

Celebrating Our Veterans

As a nation, we will celebrate Veterans Day this Saturday, November 11th, but do you know why it's on this date? In 1918, World War I ended at the 11th hour on the 11th day of the 11th month. The first observance of this historic moment, known as Armistice Day, was the following year on November 11, 1919. On June 1, 1954, Congress amended legislation to change the name and scope of the holiday to Veterans Day, as a day to honor all military veterans of the United States Armed Forces, both living and dead, for their patriotism, love of country, and willingness to serve and sacrifice for the common good.

We salute the men and women who have served our country in the past and those who keep us safe today. Thank you for your service and the many sacrifices you have made in order to protect our land, our American way of life, and our democracy. Church, as you are able, please remember and acknowledge these men & women this Saturday.

CRBC Covered Dish Luncheon

Following the worship service next Sunday, November 19th (the Sunday before Thanksgiving Day), CRBC will celebrate a time of thanksgiving together with a covered dish luncheon. Please bring enough food to feed your family and a little more for our guests.

Poinsettia Update

Thanks to all of you, we will have 64 red poinsettias plants adorning our sanctuary during the Advent season. We need several volunteers to drive to Homewood Nursery to gather these flowers on Thursday, November 30th at 11:00am. Contact Pat Danieley to volunteer and check future newsletters for more opportunities to help decorate and beautify God's house at CRBC as we prepare to celebrate the birth of our Savior.

The Numbers from Sunday

Last Sunday, there were 28 in worship. Giving to CRBC totaled $3,732.
